5. Examination reforms implemented:

From the academic year 2011, Choice Based Credit System was implemented in: all courses. College implemented Semester End internal and external examinations as per HNGU guidelines. It becomes mandatory for every student to appear in evaluation process at the end of each semester. The college grants 30 marks out of which 20 marks are allocated for the student's performance in written examination, 05 marks are given for Assignments/project work writing and 05 marks are allocated for the presentation of the students. Students must maintain their presence up to 75 classroom percent. It is compulsory to submit their assignments after the end of the syllabus. As per the directions of the Principal and Examination Committee, the Heads of Departments issue responsibility of drawing question papers to their respective faculties. The examination committee keeps the whole process of printing of the question papers confidential. The examinations are conducted in a very strict but serene atmosphere. The faculties keep strict vigil performing their duty as invigilators. Examination committee members perform the duty of senior supervisor and local squad to prevent any kind of malpractices. All the classrooms and lobbies are equipped with CCTV surveillance which makes the examinations fair and free. College provides separate room at ground floor for the physically challenged students and a chance of retest is given to those students who remains absent on grounds like health reasons, participation in any cultural event, university level seminar, etc.
